

VALLEY OURIKA

Located 30 km south of Marrakech, this valley is the most popular of the High Atlas valleys, especially in summer when the temperature becomes unbearable in Marrakech. There is 10 to 15 degrees less. This getaway can penetrate the Atlas and discover a valley inhabited by Berber tribes and a small river lined with "beaches" of greenery. Cheap restaurants abound for excellent taste tagines.

Provide numerous stops to admire the scenery (which combines the green of nature, the red earth and the blue sky) that are even more beautiful in return, in light of late afternoon. The best time, the flowering is between March and June.

Rate for the day: 900 dirhams for 2-4 people / 1100 Dirhams 5-8 persons

VALLEY OURIKA + ASNI

A 47 km from Marrakech, this Berber village is located more than 1000 meters above sea level and is located at the foot of the highest mountain in Morocco (Jebel Toubkal at 4165 m).

Asni is erected in the middle of orchards and gardens, in a very fertile valley. Its large weekly market on Saturday brought the peasants of several miles around. There is everything and especially pottery and trinkets.

Rate for the days: 1200 Dirhams for 2-4 Persons / 1400 Dirhams for 5-8 Persons

THE CASCADES OF OUZOUD

Located 150 km north -east of Marrakech, these amazing waterfalls of 110 m height, classified among the most beautiful sites of Morocco drain into an impressive stream and is therefore one of the most remarkable natural attractions Moroccan Atlas.

If you are brave, you can cool off in pure water but mostly make a descent through the olive groves and pomegranates for a crossing of the most unforgettable below! With a little luck, to be able to even see some monkeys! Small restaurants with reasonable prices are aligned along the return path. Guides from the ride are there to support you if you wish.

Rate for the days: 1200 Dirhams for 2-4 Persons / 1400 Dirhams 5-8 Persons

ESSAOUIRA

Small seaside town of the most fascinating of the Atlantic coast with walls that divide the old city into several districts. It surprises by its small rectilinear streets, designed by a French.

This small fishing port, located 186 km from Marrakech, is an ancient fortified city. The tranquility of the city and its particular climate make it a favorite spot for surfers from around the world. The wind, very often present, slows a little tanning enthusiasts.

The small Medina has kept its typical charm. Freshly caught fish are on offer on the port, but please look for the small restaurants in the streets. Argan oil is a specialty of the city and the beautiful objects cedar burl.

Rate for the days: 1200 Dirhams for 2-4 Persons / 1400 Dirhams for 5-8 Persons

OUARZAZATE (can also visit Ait Ben Haddou)

Located 196 km from Marrakech, Ouarzazate is the hub of a vast southern region Moroccan. The city evokes both the southern foothills of the High Atlas and the nearby desert. Countless kasbahs adobe, mountains and arid plains, valleys and lush oases, palm groves and red earth or other villages to the charm of this region and give it a tourist attraction. The symbol of the city is the Kasbah Taourirt (the cons) that belonged to the Glaoui . It would have been built around the middle of the eighteenth century.

Ouarzazate is the Mecca of cinema in Morocco and many international films have been shot there . The city offers to visit its well-known film studios (Atlas Studios for example). You will not miss a last walk to the craft center, full of souvenirs of all kinds.

Rate for the day: 1700 Dirhams for 2-4 persons / 1900 Dirhams for 5-8 persons

AÏT BENHADDOU

Ait Ben Haddou is located in the Ounila valley which was a traditional caravan crossing point linking Marrakech in the south of the Sahara.

Located 160 km from Marrakech , this is a striking example of the architecture of traditional southern Morocco , on the side of a hill on top of which was a collective attic (great view) . The village is as a set of earthen buildings surrounded by walls. Ksar of Ait Ben Haddou is registered on the list of UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1987. Outstanding for its old village where many films were shot (Lawrence of Arabia, The Jewel of the Nile , The Sheltering Sky , The mummy , Gladiator ...) and even though everything is a little ruined this place is still full of magic and beauty in its narrow alleys.

Rate for the day: 1700 Dirhams for 2-4 persons / 1900 Dirhams for 5-8 persons

QUALIDIA

Oualidia is a seaside resort known for its oysters and the quality of its fish. Located 210 km from Marrakech, on the coastal road between El Jadida and Safi (where the pottery village is located) is the quietest beach of the Atlantic coast . The ocean forms a lagoon ideal for navy blue and green turquoise waters for swimming.

Fishermen will offer you to taste fresh fish (mullet, sea bream , sea bass, turbot ...) they will grill on the beach . Guests can feast on its oysters , lobsters, sea urchins sitting on the sand or feet in the water!

You can also take small boats to go up the lagoon to discover the birds that nest on islands or see the many oyster farmers located on the banks ...

Oualidia oysters (some 200 tonnes per year) are considered all over Morocco. " These are the best of the world! " provide residents with pride.

Rate for the day: 1500 Dirhams for 2-4 persons / 1700 Dirhams for 5-8 persons

DAM LALLA TAKERKOUST

At 40 km from Marrakech, this impressive dam opens its artificial lake. This is the privileged place of Moroccan to swim in the clear waters of this vast lake that is the subject of real estate envy. Meanwhile, the view is beautiful and it is even a paddle or boat. For others, quad bike rentals allow you to explore the area.

Food lovers are not forgotten ; several small restaurants offer dishes. Cutting edge cool and quiet near the town red .

Rate for the day: 900 Dirhams for 2-4 persons / 1000 Dirhams for 5-8 persons

OUKAIMEDEN

Oukaïmeden is a ski resort 75 km southeast of Marrakech. The village remained authentic . The winding roads that wind through the steep valley and mountain let discover breathtaking scenery and wooden chalets stand in front of the imposing mountains (3273m) where you can at leisure practice your favorite sport or make beautiful walks . This is the best equipped resort of Morocco . It is equipped with a chair lift , the highest in Africa (2300 m) and surface lifts.

The resort is also a pleasant place in all even in the summer season, while the heat crushes Marrakech. An original and exotic excursion.

The nature you can admire beautiful flowers (including orchids) and for those who are interested in birding, you will surely have the chance to see birds of all kinds with enchanting names.

Rate for the day: 1100 Dirhams for 2-4 persons / 1200 Dirhams for 5-8 persons